

What You Need to Know For Our Worship Today

We're going to sing, pray, read, preach, and share this morning. Don't worry about where you are at any given point or what comes next in the service. Since God is in charge, we trust that we will be guided to where we need to be.

Feel free to express your praise and worship in whatever way is comfortable to you.

Sermon Series—That Was Then, This Is Now

What might we learn if we looked back to a word, a scripture, a sermon from years ago and asked if that word is still relevant, if it was on target, off target, or in serious need of an update? Pastor Burchill has been in the St. Andrew pulpit for going on 15 years, and Pastor Sleeth has been stepping in to fill that pulpit for almost that long (even before he came on staff). For the next few weeks we're going to go back and look at some key moments and important sermons in the life of our church and ask: if that was God's word then, what is God's word now? Back in the spring of 2004 our pastors preached a series: "Everything You Wanted To Know About Grace but Were Afraid to Ask." One of those sermons was entitled, "Ask Doctor Tim" in which Pastor Burchill played the role of radio call in host and responded to specific questions about the sacraments. This morning Pastor Burchill will reconsider a portion of that sermon and address the four most commonly asked questions about holy communion.

If you are just checking us out this morning, then know, as our guest, that you are not obligated to put anything in the offering plate as it comes around.

Children of all ages are always welcome to remain in the service, and activity bags are available at the back of the Great Room. We also have a professionally staffed nursery. Ages 3 yrs.—5th Grade are invited to leave the Great Room during the musical interlude for Joyful Sound rehearsal. When the rehearsal concludes, children 2nd—5th grade will be brought back to the service to worship with their families. Children ages 3 yrs.—1st grade will be taken to Children's Worship.

*We pray that you have been blessed by being here.
May Jesus Christ find a way to make you
His blessing to someone else in the coming week.*
