Silent Meditation and Pastoral Prayer

Lord's Prayer No. 895

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
Amen.

Sermon Series—That Was Then, This Is Now

What might we learn if we looked back to a word, a scripture, a sermon from years ago and asked if that word is still relevant, if it was on target, off target, or in serious need of an update? Pastor Burchill has been in the St. Andrew pulpit for going on 15 years, and Pastor Sleeth has been stepping in to fill that pulpit for almost that long (even before he came on staff). For the next few weeks we're going to go back and look at some key moments and important sermons in the life of our church and ask: if that was God's word then, what is God's word now?

Prayer Focus for the week—

That as we enter the Lenten season, we experience God in our lives.

The staff member to remember in prayers this week is Tricia Sembroski. The church ministry focus is the Echoes of the Gospel Book Sale. The church leader in focus this week is Cathy Potter who coordinates the book sale and the study group.

The CrossRoads web site is <http://thecrossroads-umc.org>

The 8:45 and 11:00 a.m. Sunday services are broadcast online, live, each Sunday during the service. You may also view them at anytime by accessing "Webcasts" on the church web page.

Sunday School Classes

There are Sunday School classes for all ages at 10:00 a.m. Age appropriate lessons and crafts are planned for the pre-school and elementary age children as well as thought provoking topics and discussions for youth and adults. Adult classes include:

Christian Issues... This class meets in Adult #2 in the Education wing of the church at 10:00 a.m. They focus on current issues and how they affect our Christian lives. The topic for today is Violence and Youth. News reports remind us that youth are frequently victims and perpetrators of violence. How do we understand the social, cultural, and economic roots of such violence? How can Christians work with young people and institutions in order to reduce violence?

Young Career Age... This Sunday morning group's mission is "To Know God, To Connect with Others, and To Give of Ourselves," with the primary mission that of Knowing God. The Young Adult Sunday study continues to be held at 10 a.m. This class is for anyone who considers themselves a young adult (most are in their 20's and 30's), whether single, engaged, married and/or parenting. We usually start with some community time and breakfast munchies then dig into our lesson of the week. They meet in The Intersection.

Know and Grow... The Know and Grow class is embarking on a 6-week study of the parable of the Prodigal Son, starting Sunday, February 21. The study is based on Henri J.M. Nouwen's book The Return of the Prodigal Son. Reading the book, however, is not a requirement for participation in the class. Join them on Sundays in the Adult 1 between services, at 10:00 a.m.

Young Families Class... This class is for married couples in their 30's and 40's with children. They discuss everyday life issues, family finances, various topics of interest to the group. Anyone interested in these topics related to our faith is invited to the Adult #3 classroom at 10:00 a.m. for the class.

Thank You from the Deckard Family

Myron Deckard and family want to thank the church family for all of their love and support during this difficult time of Randy's passing. They also want to extend a special thank you to the women of the church for all of the delicious food they provided.
