Work ... Work ... Work!

“The Lord God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and take care of it.” (Genesis 2:15)

Ever since Adam, people have worked! Here are some occupations of people who lived in Bible times. Find them in the puzzle. Circle them.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

Welcome

We warmly welcome our visitors who are worshipping with us today. Our worship is more complete because you are here. If there is anything you might need, please ask an usher. Also, make your presence known to us by filling in the friendship pad as it is passed during the offertory. We pray that your time at St. Andrew will bless you and that you will return to worship with us again.

Worship Services at St. Andrew

At St. Andrew, we are pleased to offer four worship opportunities. Our 8:45 a.m. service on Sunday provides a blend of the great hymns and traditions of the faith along with an informal attitude of caring and warmth. Our Unplugged Praise worship at 10:00 a.m. features contemporary music played on acoustic instruments in an intimate setting, combining prayer, preaching, and praise to glorify God. The 11:15 a.m. praise worship relies on high energy contemporary music, dramatic vignettes, and relational preaching. The Mid-Week Service is a passionate, fun, welcoming and intimate worship experience. Come on in, grab a cup of coffee and grow with us! The service is Wednesdays at 7 p.m. in The Intersection. It's our hope that one of these inspiring worship experiences will help connect you to the living God.

For Our Guests

If you are a first-time guest with us today, you are invited to receive a Welcome Packet from a greeter or at the Welcome Center. In The Commons, there is a gift for each guest family from our Front Porch Ministry. Please stop at the Welcome Center after the service to pick up your gift, and you can drop off the completed visitor card that you will find in the Welcome Packet. We are glad you chose to worship with us today.

Coffee in Commons

You are encouraged to come and enjoy fellowship along with coffee, tea, or juice, and donuts. Coffee in The Commons begins about 9:45 a.m. and continues through 11:15 a.m.

BreakAway Registration

If you have a student who is finishing 5th grade and will be in 6th grade for the 2013-14 school year, then sign them up for Breakup for Break-Away 2013—FaithQuest—One King to Rule Them All! Break-

Away is the greatest mini-camp around—full of adventure and fun! A registration fee of $20 (scholarships are available) should accompany your registration forms and permission slips. All forms can be downloaded from the St. Andrew website – www.andrew-umc.org. All forms and fees must be turned in to be considered registered. If you have any questions, please contact Laurie Klenosky at 497-7755 or Sue Burchill: burchillfamily@msn.com.

Family Promise Collection

One of the Genesis groups is sponsoring a SUPPLIES DRIVE for the Family Promise Day Center. They are wrapping up their collections but you can still drop items off in the collection boxes around the church.

What's needed? Items like:

- Heavy-duty kitchen trash bags
- Dishwasher soap
- Paper towels
- Baby wet wipes
- Baby body wash
- Baby shampoo
- Diapers (Sizes 3,4,5,)
- Copy paper for their office
- Coloring Books
- Children/family oriented DVDs
- Sample/travel sizes
 - tooth paste
 - deodorant (men's/women's)
 - shampoo
 - conditioner

Summer Sunday School

Small group leaders are needed for children's summer Sunday school (preschool through grade 5). The leaders will assist their students in large group activities at the beginning of the Sunday school hour and then break out with them for an age appropriate activity. All necessary materials and instructions will be provided, including snacks! Brief commitments of two weeks are requested, unless you prefer to help more frequently! Come and enjoy an hour with our St. Andrew children! Contact Jan Collins-Cutter to volunteer or ask questions: jan@andrew-umc.org.

Pick Up Your Directory

If you had your photo taken (or provided one) for the picture directories, there is one with your name on it in the office. Please pick yours up so we can save on the postage for mailing those not picked up.

If there is not a directory for you, and you would like one, please write your name on the list by the boxes of directories.

We have several of the "imperfect" directories that only list one email. If you would like to have an extra copy of one of these directories, please take one from the marked boxes in the workroom. Questions? Ask Tricia Sembroski or contact her at tricia@andrew-umc.org

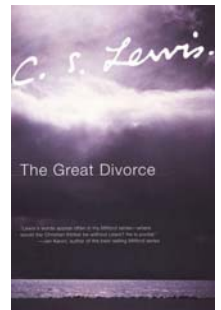

Echoes of the Gospel Book Group

Discussion: The Great Divorce by C.S. Lewis—discussion led by Dan Olson (Snacks Provided)

Book description from amazon.com: What if anyone in Hell could take a bus trip to Heaven and stay there forever if they wanted to? In The Great Divorce C. S. Lewis again employs his formidable talent for fable and allegory. The writer finds himself in Hell boarding a bus bound for Heaven. The amazing opportunity is that anyone who wants to stay in Heaven, can. This is the starting point for an extraordinary meditation upon good and evil, grace and judgment. Lewis's revolutionary idea is the discovery that the gates of Hell are locked from the inside. In Lewis's own words, "If we insist on keeping Hell (or even earth) we shall not see Heaven: if we accept Heaven we shall not be able to retain even the smallest and most intimate souvenirs of Hell."

For those of you who are fans of C.S. Lewis, please join us, even if you only plan on attending this one meeting. We are open to all levels of participation in our Book Club.
