

What You Need to Know For Our Worship Today

We're going to sing, pray, read, preach, and share this morning. Don't worry about where you are at any given point or what comes next in the service. Since God is in charge, we trust that we will be guided to where we need to be. Feel free to express your praise and worship in whatever way is comfortable to you.

You Are Good

Sending Forth

Most gracious God, you crown the year with your goodness. We praise you that you have fulfilled your promise that, while earth remains, seedtime and harvest shall not cease.

We bless you for the order and constancy of nature, for the beauty of the earth and sky and sea, and for the providence that year by year supplies our needs.

We thank you for your blessing on the work of those who plowed the soil and sowed the seed, and now have gathered in the fruits of the earth.

And with our thanksgiving for these blessings, accept our praise, O God, for the eternal riches of your grace in Christ our Lord; to whom, with you, O Father, and the Holy Spirit, be all glory and honor and worship, for ever and ever. Amen.

(J.M. Todd, England, 20th Cent., ALT.)

Children of all ages are always welcome to remain in the service, and activity bags for children ages 3—5th grade are available at the back of the Great Room. Childcare for infants—age 3 is provided in our nursery. At the 9:45 service, children age 3 through 1st grade are invited to leave the Great Room during the musical interlude for Children's Worship. Children are also welcome to visit our art tables in the Great Room.
