If you are a first-time guest with us today, you are invited to receive a gift from the Welcome Center. Also, make your presence known to us by filling in the friendship pad as it is passed down the row. We pray that your time at St. Andrew will bless you and that you will return to worship with us again.

NEXT STEPS

Today, during both the 9:45 and 11 a.m. spaces, St. Andrew will be offering Next Steps in the Intersection. This will be a time to learn more about the ministries, history, and people of St. Andrew while sharing some of your own story and questions. Opportunities to serve in these ministries and how to become a new member will be shared. So, whether you are a first time guest or have been coming for years and want to go deeper in your connection, this is for you.

NEW Classes THIS Sunday

The Andrew Paradigm: How to be a Lead Follower of Jesus, facilitated by John Garner at 9:45 a.m. in the Adult 3

Classroom. January 14-February 25

How can we have God as our leader when we are in the process of leading others? How can we live as 'lead followers' in the kingdom of God? The group will explore these questions and empower leadership during the seven-week study.

Half Truths: God Helps Those Who Help Themselves and Other Things the Bible Doesn't Say* facilitated by Chuck Westfall at 11 a.m. in the Adult 3 Classroom.

We've all heard simple phrases, such as, "Everything happens for a reason" and "God won't give you more than you can handle." They sound Christian – like something you might find in the Bible. During the six-week study, the class will search for the whole truth by comparing some common Christian sayings with wisdom found in Scripture and discover the greater truths of Jesus Christ.

Prayer Quilt

Please take time to stop by the Prayer Room and say a prayer and tie a knot in a quilt for Eldon Sanders who attends the 11 a.m. service. Eldon is recovering from a broken leg and is fighting cancer. He would like prayers for comfort and strength as his leg heals and as he fights cancer. Elson also asked for prayers for cancer remission.

Thank You

I continue to hear the words, "Great is thy Faithfulness" echo in my soul, ever aware that these lyrics refer to the presence of God through all the seasons. Yet the words describe for me the home we have in our St. Andrew family. While I cannot profess to feel close to God at this moment, the cards and emails and texts and beautiful acts of kindness have brought us into the loving embrace of the One who too lost a son. The faithfulness of this congregation in praying through all these years as we battled the demon of addiction that would ultimately claim our son, the constant grace and acceptance we have found within those walls as we celebrated his recovery and lamented his relapse, time and again, have sustained us. By providing sanctuary for us to celebrate our son, generously feeding all those who traveled near and far, performing songs of comfort and promise, standing with us in our abject grief, you all have shown God to us when we cannot see. Please know that our gratitude is profound, your unfailing mercy is a tribute to God. We are blessed, even in the darkest times, to catch a glimpse of the Light because of you.
